JFK'S WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH TRIVIA CONTEST

Mayor Julio Robaina, the City Council and the City of Hialeah invite all the members of the media to join JFK Library in the Women's History Month Trivia Contest. The trivia game for pre-teens and teens will consist of two sets of questions from reference books. The contestants will then have to search for the answers in the reference books provided by JFK. The contest will teach the kids about the achievements of women, but it will also let them know how useful the libraries books are for common use. The winner will be given a prize and the contest will be as a part of Saturday story time.

When: Saturday, March 15, 2008 at 2 PM

Where: JFK Library 190 West 49 Street

Extra Info: For more information, the media may contact the Library Acting Director, Diane L. Diaz at 305-821-2700.
